

I believe changeing the LPFM station rules to allow them to have priority over existing station is wrong and bad idea. I listen to K-LOVE radio all around the country. They are one of the few station that I can listen to with my entire family and not be insulted and assualted by vulgar, crass comments. They provide an extremely important public service that would dissapear under the new guideline Please DO NOT change the rules for Low Power FM stations.